

UNIT 7: Which Squirrel best represents how you are feeling at the START of today's Group Chat?

Image Credit: Wild Birds Unlimited

Image Description: A grid of 9 photos of squirrels.

Squirrel Image 1: A squirrel is standing on its hind legs with its mouth open as it stares up, possibly awaiting more food.

Squirrel Image 2: A squirrel is standing on all four legs and looks pleased.

Squirrel Image 3: A fat squirrel is sitting with its front paws in front of its chest and its mouth wide open as if shocked and side-eyeing someone or something.

Squirrel Image 4: A squirrel is standing on its hind legs holding a carved pumpkin in front of, or over, its head so it appears that the squirrel has a Jack O' Lantern head.

Squirrel Image 5: A squirrel is lying on its belly across a wooden railing. One of its front paws is hanging off the side of the railing. One eye is open, and the other eye is slanted as if the squirrel is closing its eye or falling sleep.

Squirrel Image 6: A squirrel is sitting on its hind legs. Its arms are crossed in front of its chest, and its face appears indignant.

Squirrel Image 7: A squirrel is dusted in snow, and is looking over an edge.

Squirrel Image 8: A squirrel is standing on its hind legs stretching out with its arms raised wide to the sky as though rejoicing.

Squirrel Image 9: A fat squirrel is standing on its hind legs while eating next to a husk of corn.
